

QUICK RELEASE

This part is used to secure a shaft. When the orange actuator knob is pulled, the black plastic part below the thread is released. Once the shaft has travelled the correct distance, the part snaps into place in the final position for fast and secure locking. The shaft is released as appropriate.